
... is a ... gem, and her love is a source of wisdom, when her husband is worthy of her; but when he is unworthy, she becomes ungrateful. 3. A woman should ever make herself loved, because she has been created for the love of man; but she should ever be wary of him, because she has the right to choose her own mate. 4. A woman should not be content with her husband's loving solicitude; for, as it is said in the Bible: "Woman is her husband's glory". 5. Let woman go about diligently and diligently seek for the love of her husband; let her remember that her whole lot depends on him, and, from whatever fortune she is born, and whatever her behavior, she will always find her source of joy in him. 6.
